

COVID - 19

Protect your employees and businesses from the effects of COVID-19 by directing them to our short 5 minute set of instructions and video on the virus prevention based on the most recent Federal Health Department guidelines.

The document is currently in the DOCUMENT Library of every one of your employees student profile under the category “Safety Alerts and Notices”. It can also be assigned as a mandatory reading document for everyone. It is then supported by our email notification.
